

DATE 02/09/2014 (Tuesday)			Venue: Lomond/ Ness room, 8 th floor, Scotland House Rond-Point Schuman 6, 1040 Brussels (Google map)
From	To	Duration
1400	1415	15'	Welcome Speech by EACEA, Lifelong Learning Programme Alba Prieto Gonzale – GADGET project officer
1415	1425	10'	GADGET – Introduction, methodology and activities Spike Tang – University of Alicante, GADGET project co-ordinator
1425	1455	30'	Showcase of project results GADGET consortium
1455	1525	30'	How to create a new generation of low carbon entrepreneurs, intrapreneurs and enablers to address the challenges posed by climate change? Pioneers into Practice Program - Climate KIC, a new type of innovation José Luis Muñoz – European Co-ordinator, Pioneers into Practice Programme. Climate KIC
1525	1535	10'	Questions & Answers
1535	1605	30'	University – business co-operation involving students: good practice, promoting and hampering factors Christoph Adametz – TU Graz
1605	1615	10'	Questions & Answers
1615	1645	30'	A collaborative approach to developing a new Scottish Academic Search Tool – Scotland’s Environment Web LIFE+ project Hector Payo Meiriño – Junior Project Manager, Scotland’s Environment Web Edinburgh Centre for Carbon Innovation Ed Craig, Head of Enterprise and Innovation of Oldenburg EUREKA SD – Striving towards Sustainable Development Prof. Dr. Jorge Marx Gómez – University of Oldenburg HELIX: Capacity building in science communication Asher Minns – University of Exeter
1645	1655	10'	Questions & Answers
1655	1710	15'	Closing session
1730	1900		Brokerage & Networking